Saturday 28th January, 2006
BACKGROUND TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MICROFINANCE

- Financing “Real” Sectors of the Economy (1960s)
  - e.g. agriculture, manufacturing, trade
  - “market failure” argument

- Results (1970s)
  - subsidized interest rates
  - low savings
  - central bank financed government budget deficit
BACKGROUND TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MICROFINANCE (cont.)

* Central Bank provided parastatals with liquidity
* Central Bank lacked supervisory autonomy and capacity
* Weakened instruments of monetary policy (e.g. unstable interest rates, exchange rates and price level; insolvent financial system)

- Distressed Banking Systems (1980s)
  - Central Bank slow to react to banking crisis

- Rising Fiscal Deficits
  - directed credit led to inefficient use of capital
  - public sector borrowing led to high inflation (e.g. 78%)

- overvalued currencies led to import dependence
- non-performing assets rose due to poor trade terms and mismanagement

■ Dramatic Reforms (1990s)
- IMF supported SAF/ESAF implemented
- World Bank supported SAC/SAL implemented

*to achieve non-inflationary, private sector led growth
Results of Reforms
- elimination of directed credit
- liberalised interest rates and exchange rates
- strengthening regulation and supervision
- bank restructuring (e.g. branch rationalisation)
- increased Central Bank autonomy

- developing financial markets (including microfinance)

Components and Policy Objectives:
- to facilitate sustained and rapid economic growth
- to improve governance and security
- to increase the ability of the poor to raise their incomes
- to improve the quality of life of the poor, and
- to improve equity and participation

- Financial Sector Reform
  “The Government recognises that greater access to, and sustainable flow of credit to the informal sector operators, are critical to progress in poverty reduction. Therefore, development of an appropriate policy and legal framework to promote a viable and sustainable system of microfinance in the country will be initiated and completed in 2000/01. In doing this, the Government will consult with the stakeholders to get their views on the best way to create the required enabling environment for the sub-sector. In addition, a full-fledged micro finance unit will be established in 2000/01 in the Central Bank of Kenya to regulate microfinance organisations. The unit will be required to formulate policies and procedures to address the problems facing these institutions and to build up a database to facilitate better monitoring of their operations”.
Institutional Framework

- The Treasury
- Central Bank of Kenya
  - Microfinance Division (2000)
  - Rural Finance Development Department (2004)
- AMFI
- Attorney General’s Chambers
Institutional Framework (cont.)

- Develop microfinance policy, legislation and prudential guidelines
- Other financial intermediaries, e.g. SACCOs, KPOSB, DFIs (IDB, KIE, AFC etc.)
- Credit Reference Bureaus
- Credit Rating Agencies
- Process taken 2000 to 2005
Microfinance Policy Statement

- Role of microfinance in poverty reduction
- Legal & regulatory framework
- Institutional capacity
- Tiered approach to regulation & supervision
  - Tier 3: no – regulation (ROSCAs)
